DOING BUSINESS IN CHINA

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 2010

8:00AM - 10:00AM

CHICAGOLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
200 E. RANDOLPH ST. STE. 2200
CHICAGO, IL 60601

Please join the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce International Programs Department and Caroline Berube, Managing Partner of HJM Asia Law & Co. LLC as she discusses how to identify business partners, protect your interests and succeed in today's economic climate when doing business in China.

At this engaging roundtable breakfast seminar, you will learn:

- How to find & evaluate a prospect partner?
- How to work with a local partner in China?
- How to protect against fraud when doing business in and with China: background investigations and other techniques for risk mitigation?
- Do you need to set up a company structure to protect your interests in China?
- What are the four ways to do business in China and the pitfalls to avoid?

CAROLINE BERUBE is the Managing Partner of HJM Asia Law & Co LLC, a Guangzhou-based law firm. She has more than 12 years of legal experience practicing in Asia. She specializes in all aspects of commercial and corporate law, mergers and acquisitions and intellectual property in Singapore and in China. Her career has focused on corporate law in Asia and commercial practice, an area in which she has built up a well-respected expertise amongst many European, Asian and North American clients. Caroline is especially well-regarded for advising clients on the Asian legal structure of their companies, based on her sound understanding of the pitfalls and advantages of most Asian jurisdictions. Caroline has been featured in numerous magazines and newspaper articles and is also a regular speaker at many international conferences worldwide.
