

Osaka/Chicago Social Services Exchange Conference

"What Can Cultures Learn From Each Other"

Friday, September 17, 2010

9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Chicago Cultural Center

78 East Washington Street

5th Floor Millennium Park Room

Come hear ten Osaka delegates discuss their week's experience with Chicago professionals about common social challenges with youth, elderly and the disabled which included visits to social service sites to experience Chicago's best practices.

Hear both Osaka delegates and Chicago social service professionals dialogue about "What Can We Learn From Each Other." Breakout sessions will immediately follow to brainstorm about new practice and policy ideas as a result of the exchange.
