

OCTOBER 21-31, 2010
THE REAL REEL ISRAEL

MAJOR SUPPORT FOR THE 2010 CFIC IS PROVIDED BY
 CONSULATE GENERAL OF ISRAEL TO THE MIDWEST
 JEWISH UNITED FUND/JEWISH FEDERATION OF METROPOLITAN CHICAGO

Shalom!

Welcome to the 2010 Chicago Festival of Israeli Cinema (CFIC), the largest showcase of Israeli films in the Midwest.

The theme of this year's event is The Real Reel Israel. Whether you're an aficionado or casual filmgoer, a native Israeli or American, you'll appreciate the depth, breadth and artistry of our selections. From the stories of homegrown sumo wrestlers (our Opening Night comedy, A Matter of Size) airborne Russian-Israelis (Five Hours from Paris, Yolki Palki), Ethiopian-Israeli rappers (Children of the Bible) and wildly popular modern Orthodox 30-somethings (Strugim), you'll be entertained and intrigued by the mix of emotions, circumstances, viewpoints, lifestyles, cultures and languages experienced every day in this tiny modern country.

All films have English subtitles.

We're also excited to offer you several NEW conveniences this season and going forward:

- Online ticket sales at fandango.com, or in person at each AMC box office.
- Membership! Buy your tickets on our website before they're offered to the public, plus get priority seating. (See the blue box on Spread #7.)
- Venues! (See Spread #8.)
- Social media! (See under the green box on Spread #7.)

As always, we encourage you to buy your tickets early, as many films sell out—quickly!

Thanks for all of your support. See you at the movies!

78 East Washington St., Chicago IL

A MATTER OF SIZE

In Hebrew and Japanese with English subtitles Running time: 90 minutes

Directed by Sharon Maymon and Erez Tadmor
Written by Sharon Maymon and Danny Cohen-Solal

Grand Prize/Best Feature/Special Jury Award, Alpe d'Huez International Comedy Festival 2010
Best Actress/Supporting Actress/Costume Design Ophir Awards, Israeli Film Academy 2009
Audience Award: Washington Jewish Film Festival 2009, Brooklyn Israel Film Festival 2010,
Detroit Jewish Film Festival 2010, Seattle Jewish Film Festival 2010,
San Francisco Jewish Film Festival 2009, Minneapolis Jewish Film Festival 2009

A MATTER OF SIZE is a comedy about a "coming out" of a different kind by an overweight Israeli who mutinies from his "Dictatorship or Thinness" diet support group when he discovers sumo wrestling. He forms Israel's first sumo wrestling team, overcomes personal adversity, falls in love and, yes, sumo wrestles.

"A finely honed visual sense and superb comic timing. Ludicrously funny and beautiful." Variety

"A breakout." The Hollywood Reporter

"Hilarious and thoroughly enjoyable. The dialog is witty and real." MTV Movie Blog

"The Karate Kid meets The Full Monty. An unexpected delight." NightsandWeekends.com

Hosted by The Petach Tikva Committee of Chicago Sister Cities International and Pintel Financial

RECEPTION (DIETARY LAWS OBSERVED) FOLLOWS THE FILM
Sponsored by Garden Fresh Market

AMC Northbrook Court

At the battle of Tel Saki, one of the first battles of the Yom Kippur War in 1973, five wounded soldiers were left alone in a small bunker, surrounded by Syrian tanks, soldiers and artillery. The story recounts the courage, heroism and great sacrifice as well as the fear, maiming and frenzy of battle. It is a tale of miraculous rescue and haunting memory.

An IDF paratrooper is scheduled to speak at the Oct. 28 screening.

BROTHERS

Feature / 3 Screenings

FIPA D'OR Grand Prize for Best Actor and Best Actress/ FIPA International Festival 2009
Audience Award: Festival Internal Cinema Tous Ecrans 2009,
Best Feature San Diego Jewish Film Festival 2010
Official Selection: Seville European Film Festival 2009, Amiens International Film Festival 2009,
Mostra de Valencia, 2009

Brothers Dan and Aaron meet in Israel after many years apart, only to discover how different they have become. Dan is a secular Jew living on a kibbutz, while Aaron, an Orthodox lawyer and Torah scholar from the U.S., has come to Israel to fight a court case. The conflict between the brothers is echoed in the legal battle over the separation of state and religion in modern Israel. A fascinating argument that will certainly provoke discussion!

Filmmaker Igal Niddam is scheduled to speak at the Oct. 23 & 24 screenings.

IDA'S DANCE CLUB

Documentary / 2 Screenings (with Variations for Piano for Six Hands)

Ida, a larger-than-life former opera singer from Russia, runs a Tel Aviv ballroom dance club for seniors. Almost all of them are olim well past retirement age, but dancing gives them the strength and desire to become princes and princesses for whom anything is still a possibility. Once a year, pairs compete to win the top dance prizes in an evening filled with fanfare.

"A magical experience. I felt like breaking into a little dance in celebration of life." YNET

VARIATIONS FOR PIANO FOR SIX HANDS

After a five-year-absence, Misha Rabinovich, a Russian musician with a Polaroid camera and big expectations, surprises his wife and little boy at the stairs of their apartment. Unfortunately, the encounter does not go as planned – the boy identifies Misha as his uncle and Anna, his wife, advises him to look for a hotel. All this takes place during Misha's five-day vacation in Israel, while he uses his best tricks in order to become part of the family once again.

JAFFA

FEATURE / 1 Screening

In Hebrew and Arabic with English and Hebrew subtitles
Running Time: 90 minutes

Palm Springs International Film Festival 2009, Rio de Janeiro International Film Festival 2009
São Paulo International Film Festival 2009, Warsaw Film Festival 2010

In the heart of Jaffa, Reuven's garage is a family business. His daughter Mali and his son Meir, as well as Toufik, a young Palestinian, work there. No one suspects that Mali and Toufik have been in love since childhood, and that Mali is pregnant with Toufik's child. As the two lovers secretly make their wedding arrangements, tension steadily builds between Meir and Toufik.

"Absorbing, touching, well-acted." Hollywood Reporter

"A stylistically risky departure." Variety

LONE SAMARITAN

Documentary / 2 Screenings (with Ruth)

In Hebrew with English subtitles
Running Time: 50 minutes

Directed by Barak Heymann

Mon., Oct. 25, 8:30 pm AMC Northbrook Court
Thurs., Oct. 28, 3:00 pm AMC Northbrook Court

Fippa-Biarritz International Documentary Film Festival, France 2010,
Haifa International Film Festival 2009

As a tiny sect constantly in danger of extinction, the Samaritans enforce harsh rules to prevent assimilation. After Sophie Tzadaka, a TV personality, and her sisters break the rules and leave the community, the family becomes subject to physical and mental harassment by sect members. The film follows Sophie on a touching father-daughter journey into the family's open wounds.

"Heyman's loaded work succeeds in being effective without falling into clichés and sentimentality." Ma'ariv

"An interesting peek into an almost unknown world." Ha'aretz

"A praiseworthy original work." City Mouse

Hosted by WITASWAN (Women in the Audience Supporting Women Artists Now).

RUTH

Feature / 2 Screenings (with Lone Samaritan)

In Hebrew with English subtitles
Running Time: 55 minutes

Directed and produced by Keren Abitan
Written by Inbar David-Noar

Mon., Oct. 25, 8:30 pm      AMC Northbrook Court
Thurs., Oct. 28, 3:00 pm      AMC Northbrook Court

Official Selection: Haifa International Film Festival 2009, Traveling Filmmor Women's Film Festival, Turkey 2010, International Women's Day Film Festival, Boston 2010, New Beijing International Movie Week 2010, Marbella International Film Festival 2009, ReelHeART International Film Festival, Toronto 2009, Swansea Bay Film Festival 2009, Israel Film Festival, L.A./New York/Miami 2009, The Indie Gathering USA 2009, Strasbourg International Film Festival 2009, Filmmaker Festival & Filmmaker Award, UK 2009

During the days of the Israeli withdrawal from Gaza, when the residents of the Katif Settlements are uniting to fight for their existence, Ruth, a teenager, is also searching for excitement. When she meets Erez, a handsome photojournalist sent to cover the events of the disengagement, she realizes she doesn't belong anywhere. The film chronicles Ruth's struggle to hold an independent opinion and interpret her faith in her own way.

"A dramatic and interesting film with excellent acting that manages to touch the hearts of viewers regardless of their opinion of the events of August, 2005." Globes

Hosted by WITASWAN (Women in the Audience Supporting Women Artists Now).

SRUGIM

Television Episodes / 1 Screening

In Hebrew with English subtitles
Running Time: 114 minutes

Directed by Laizy Shapira
Written by Laizy Shapira and Chava Divon

Sat., Oct. 30, 8:30 pm      AMC Northbrook Court

Best Drama, Israeli Film and Television Academy 2009
Official Selection: Israel Film Festival, L.A. and New York 2009, Seattle Jewish Film Festival 2009, Contra Costa Jewish Film Festival 2009, Chicago Festival of Israeli Cinema 2009, Philadelphia Jewish Film Festival 2009, Silicon Valley Jewish Film Festival 2009, Washington Jewish Film Festival 2009, Sacramento Jewish Film Festival 2010

The hit Israeli TV series about 30-something singles within the Modern Orthodox community of Jerusalem returns with Season 2! In episodes 1-3, each highly developed character is trying to find his or her way in contemporary Israeli society. Yifat and Amir are now married. Hodaya is secular. Natti and Reut continue to go on their respective bad dates. Sometimes funny, sometimes sad, but always addicting!

"The first time that the religious-Zionist community has been represented in a non-stereotyped way on television." Jeffrey Woolf, Bar Ilan University

TEL AVIV-JAFFA

Documentary / 1 Screening

In Hebrew with English subtitles
Running Time: 89 minutes

Written and directed by Anat Zeltzer and Moti Bar-On

Wed., Oct. 27, 1:00 pm      AMC Northbrook Court

Official Selection: UK Jewish Film Festival, Cinaviv Berlin Israeli Film Festival, Calgary Jewish Film Festival, Vancouver Jewish Film Festival (all 2009); Ann Arbor Jewish Film Festival 2010

In celebration of the 100 years since Tel Aviv's establishment, the film depicts the remarkable, moving and humorous story of the largest and most important city in Israel. Supported by in-depth research and rare archival materials, it covers the national conflicts, political tensions and cultural contradictions that have made Tel Aviv-Jaffa a unique, vibrant city and an international metropolis.

"Deep and witty, served up with a great deal of charm." Globes

"The editing, the script, the subtle insights, the humor, the combination of Bar-On's unique delivery and Zeltzer's expertise in small details, always makes a winner." YNET

THE LONERS

Feature / 1 Screening

In Hebrew and Russian with English subtitles
Running Time: 92 minutes

Directed by Renen Schorr

Written by Nir Bergman, Guy Meirson, Moshe Zonder and Renen Schorr

Sun., Oct. 24, 3:30 pm      AMC Northbrook Court

CANVAS Award, Open Doek Film Festival, 2010

Official Selection: Pusan International Film Festival, South Korea 2009, Cape Town Film Festival 2010, FilmFestival Open Doek 2010, Toronto Jewish Film Festival 2010, IMAJ Belgium 2010

Loners refers to the status of two IDF soldiers, Glory and Sasha, Russian olim whose families still live in Russia. They plan to find their road to success in their new country through their military service, but slip up, are accused of smuggling arms and arrested. Not wanting to lose their honor as soldiers, they ask for a military trial. Their request is denied, leading to unexpected conflicts. Inspired by true events.

"The director managed to avoid the traps of the prison film genre." Open Doek Festival Jury

Israeli film scholar Pablo Utin is scheduled to speak at the screening.

THE TALE OF NICOLAI AND THE LAW OF RETURN

Docu-drama / 1 Screening (with Clementine)

In Romanian and Hebrew with English subtitles

Marshall Award, documentART European Film Festival, Germany/Poland 2009
World Premiere, Visions du Reel Film Festival, Nyon, Switzerland 2009
Official Selection Shanghai TV Festival, the 11th Mumbai Film Festival, the Hong Kong Jewish Film Festival, the San Francisco/Dallas/Palm Beach/Washington/Boston Jewish Film Festivals (all 2009); the Film IsReal! Festival for New Israeli Cinema, The Netherlands (2010) and 14 more festivals.

With the collapse of communism, Nicolai, like so many thousands of others in his remote Romanian village, suddenly finds himself out of work, so he signs up to become a guest worker in Israel. Exploited by his company, he flees and becomes "illegal." What happens next raises questions about Israeli laws that define the national identity.

"With shadings of satire and irony. A film that challenges the traditional definitions of documentary." Ha'aretz

THERE WERE NIGHTS

Feature / 2 Screenings

In Hebrew and Russian with English subtitles
Running Time: 90 minutes

Written and directed by Ron Ninio

Sun., Oct. 24, 8:30 pm AMC Northbrook Court
Tues., Oct. 26, 6:00 pm AMC Northbrook Court

Best Actress, Haifa International Film Festival 2009

As a small, only child, Goni (Dana Ivgy), was blinded by the limelight and charmed by the charisma and intensity of her successful father (Moshe Ivgy), an actor and theatre director. Then, at seven, that world came tumbling down. Today, she is a strong, beautiful young woman. The plot weaves a past-present tapestry of loss and defeat, victory, pain and grace, as Goni balances the love of her father with her desire to live her own life.

"Ninio's method of working with actors is matched by few other Israeli directors." Walla

"(The film) has emotional strength and the inspired casting of Dana and Moshe Ivgy." YNET

WORLD CLASS KIDS

Documentary / 2 Screenings (with Children of the Bible)

In Hebrew, English, Arabic, Mandarin and Tagalog
with English subtitles
Running Time: 54 minutes

Written and directed by Netta Loevy

Tues., Oct. 26, 3:00 pm AMC Northbrook Court
Sun., Oct. 31, 3:30 pm AMC Northbrook Court

Official Selection, Jerusalem International Film Festival 2010

An Arab, a Jew, a Chinese, and a Filipino walk to school one morning..."- sounds like the beginning of an old joke, but it's real. They are second-graders at Tel Nordau Elementary School in Tel Aviv. The film follows the pupils' interactions among themselves and with Meirav, their teacher, during the year of the Gaza War, as social dynamics are upset when the students deal with painful identity issues and experience the first cracks in their childhood innocence.

YES, MISS COMMANDER

Documentary / 1 Screening

In Hebrew with English subtitles
Running Time: 96 minutes

Directed by Dan Setton and Itzik Lerner

Thurs., Oct. 28, 6:00 pm AMC Northbrook Court
(Hosted by Friends of the IDF)

Official Selection: Amsterdam International Documentary Film Festival 2009, Jerusalem International Film Festival, JCC of Greater Washington Film Festival, Atlanta Jewish Film Festival, REEL ISRAEL Film Festival, Contra-Costa Jewish Film Festival

In a "fly on the wall" technique, with no intervention or interpretation, the filmmakers lead us through a unique IDF basic training course, with young female soldiers assigned the daunting task of transforming violent, abused and criminal male recruits into full-fledged soldiers. The women patiently balance discipline with emotional involvement, and an estimated 90 percent of recruits go on to earn their uniform. It's a test of human will in the face of extreme hardship.

"An intimate look at the interaction between angry, troubled men and the women who try to keep them in line." All Movie Guide

An IDF paratrooper is scheduled to speak at the screening.

YOLKI PALKI

Documentary / 2 Screenings

In Russian and Hebrew with English subtitles
Running Time: 90 minutes

Written and directed by Alexander Gentelev

Mon., Oct. 25, 1:00 pm AMC Northbrook Court
Wed., Oct. 27, 6:00 pm AMC Northbrook Court

Best Documentary Series, Israeli Documentary Filmmakers' Forum 2008
Official Selection: Jerusalem Jewish Film Festival 2007, FilmFest Hamburg, Germany 2008,
Berlin & Potsdam Jewish Film Festival 2009
Jüdische Welten Jewish Film Festival, Dusseldorf, Germany 2009
3rd International Film Festival Russia Abroad, Russia 2009

The director takes us on a personal journey to seek out fellow passengers from the flight on which he came to Israel from Russia in the early 1990s. Their stories reflect the difficulties, the achievements, the failures of over a million people of that last great wave of immigration: what it means to them to be Israeli and what chances they have of receiving the stamp of "Israeliness."

"A moving and entertaining film." Ha'aretz

"A social time bomb that will tick ever more loudly in the coming decades." Yehidot Ahronot

"The greatness of director Alexander Gentelev and of his heroes lies in their ability to mingle humor and pain." Globes
